

Trinity Publications Group, Inc.

Publishers of the

American Indian Education Guide

CORPORATE MISSION STATEMENT

TO ENHANCE THE PHYSICAL, EMOTIONAL AND SPIRITUAL WELL-BEING OF GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS TRADITIONALLY OVERLOOKED BY COMMERCIAL PUBLISHERS, AND THUS TO PROVIDE THEM EQUAL EDUCATIONAL & EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES; AND AN AVENUE FOR BUSINESSES TO ADVERTISE AND INDIRECTLY SUPPORT OUR STUDENTS.

CORPORATE PROFILE

TRINITY PUBLICATIONS GROUP, INC. is a publishing/advertising sales company specializing in publications for growing but currently under-served markets.

In today's fast-paced business environment, Trinity Publications Group, Inc. brings together businesses and consumers with common interests and concerns who might otherwise not find each other.

With a 100% rate of growth within its first two years of operation, Trinity Publications Group, Inc. quickly established itself as an astute market publisher in our rapidly evolving communications and technological eras. Now in its 13th year, and with a proven track record, our Company continues to advance and provide new opportunities in the rapidly changing economical markets and publishing industry throughout the USA and Canada

The American Indian Education Guide is the sister publication to our Canada wide First Nations College Guide which, in its 13th year still continues to attract a wide variety of support across the country.

No other publisher has demonstrated the commitment or capability to cultivate these emerging new markets, and Trinity Publications Group Inc. is confident that the American Indian Education Guide will continue to achieve it's goal and prove to be greatly beneficial to the academic and business communities.

American Indian Education Guide

Ninth Edition

An exciting National publication offering a unique perspective on educational opportunities for America's Native population.

FOR THE READER...

Information and inspiration for Native American individuals considering post-secondary education for themselves or family or community members.

- In-depth course information from featured post-secondary institutions
- Scholarship information specific to Native Americans
- Listings of post-secondary institutions with a Native American focus
- Profiles of accomplished Native Americans who offer their personal perspectives on education
- Career opportunities of featured advertisers.

FOR THE ADVERTISER...

An unprecedented opportunity to reach out to readers with few sources for the information on post-secondary education presented in this publication.

- Students
- Educators
- Parents and Elders
- Community leaders
- Government agencies
- Administrators

The American Indian Education Guide is distributed to high schools, colleges, universities, libraries, Higher Education Associations and Native organizations, and conferences, etc