

Canadian Security Intelligence Service – CSIS

Intelligence Matters...

CSIS at a glance

CSIS is at the forefront of Canada's national security establishment, employing some of the country's most intelligent and talented men and women. The Service's role is to investigate threats, analyze information and produce intelligence.

Every day, CSIS employees work to ensure that Canada remains one of the best places in the world to live. CSIS offers more than a job; it provides an environment where you can build a meaningful and rewarding career that makes a difference to Canadians.

Working at CSIS

CSIS offers a variety of assignments in Ottawa, as well as in other regions of Canada. These assignments are always challenging, substantial, and different — the foundation of a diverse and rewarding career.

Our state-of-the-art National Headquarters building is located in the hub of Ottawa's east end, steps away from shopping, restaurants, movie theatres, and other services. We have our own fitness centre, a large campus with green space for outdoor activities, and organize a range of social activities.

CSIS's six regional offices are located in major cities across Canada: Vancouver, Edmonton, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Halifax.

Career Opportunities

CSIS is very unique in that it offers such a diverse range of career opportunities and as a result our employees bring a variety of educational backgrounds and skills.

We hire in the following fields: Administration, Communication, High-Tech and Science, Health, Human Resources, Intelligence Collection and Analysis, Languages, Law, and Security.

Student Opportunities

CSIS offers exciting student opportunities through co-op, internships and summer employment. Please visit our website for more information.
